

Economists Wrong, Beef Shortage Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — A miscalculation by government economists last year about the size of the nation's cattle industry may have misled congressional investigators into charging the nation's consumers face a beef shortage by 1975.

The apparent discrepancy came to light Tuesday in an Agriculture Department report on beef cattle projects through the next decade.

The author of the report, livestock economist Donald Seaborg, said insufficient data was used in computing beef consumption patterns provided the House Government Operations Committee last October.

The report estimated Americans will consume 119 to 121 pounds of beef per capita by 1975, compared with slightly less than 111 pounds last year.

The new projection ranged four pounds higher than the estimate departmental officials gave congressional investigators last fall, thus indicating more beef will be available in 1975 than previously thought.

Partly because of the October estimate, a subcommittee charged last month the U.S. cattle industry was failing to meet expected future consumer demands. The beef industry said at the time the charges were wrong.

Stanley H. Brumfield, in his talk on "Sensibility . . . Reconsidered" has this to say: "Live life; it is so sweet, so precious, so totally yours, so short; remove the shackles of non-being and be; Life is not lost by dying; life is lost moment by moment, day by day, in all the thousand uncaring ways you live!"

For the next few minutes we would like to chat with the woman who cares. . . it is more important than being rich or beautiful.

Muskie, Nixon Make Mileage on Pollution

By JAMES PHILLIPS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A team of Ralph Nader's student investigators has accused both President Nixon and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of passively supporting the build-up of deadly contaminants in the atmosphere.

In a lengthy task force report on air pollution in the United States, the group said Wednesday ineffective laws coupled with corporate irresponsibility have permitted the air to become so fouled that "almost no city street in America is safe."

"Both Sen. Muskie and President Nixon have moved this year to accumulate mileage on America's latest 'motherhood issue'—air pollution," said John

Power went on and off in the city of 170,000 population all day Tuesday, but mostly it remained off. Telephone service was sporadic, and Mayor James Granberry called for water rationing, asking citizens to use it only for drinking and cooking.

Authorities declared a curfew, enforced by patrolling National Guard and State Department of Public Safety personnel, for the downtown section Tuesday night to prevent further looting.

Hilary Sandoval, Small Business Administration chief, declared the city a disaster area, thus qualifying hard-hit enterprises for federal loans.

Gov. Ben Barnes said a "very conservative" estimate of damage was $50 million. The Lubbock-Avalanche Journal said it would exceed $200 million.

Tornadoes in the area sent chills through the city's populace again Tuesday night. One was sighted only 20 miles away, but most of the turbulence moved to the east of the stricken city.

The Red Cross sent 10 mobile disaster vans. The Salvation Army sent aid in the form of food, clothing and other supplies.

Markets Take Sharp Slump on Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market slumped Tuesday to its lowest level in nearly seven years.

The Dow Jones average on 30 industrials sank 5.48 points to 704.59, the lowest level since Aug. 8, 1963 when the index stood at 704.18.

Analysts attributed the market's decline to investor concern over signs of continued softness in the economy and over hostilities in Indochina and the Middle East.

Damage From Tornado Is in Millions

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer
LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Rescue workers and relief agencies pressed a search today for more dead and injured in the debris of this tornado-scarred West Texas city.

There were thousands of homeless—an estimated 4,800 with up to 750 dwellings destroyed—perhaps 500 injured, and 20 known dead.

Estimates of property damage from the savage twister Monday night ranged up to $200 million.

For a time Tuesday it appeared that the tornado-ravaged Great Plains Life building, the city's 20-story pride, would totter and fall. Great cracks and gashes were seen in what remained of its facade. The surrounding area was evacuated hurriedly.

But the swaying building stood.

Power went on and off in the city of 170,000 population all day Tuesday, but mostly it remained off. Telephone service was sporadic, and Mayor James Granberry called for water rationing, asking citizens to use it only for drinking and cooking.

Blackmun Likely Bends U.S. Court a Little More to the Right

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge Harry A. Blackmun's 99-0 confirmation by the Senate brings the Supreme Court up to full strength and probably bends it a little further toward the right.

For the first time in a year, since Abe Fortas was pressured to quit by allegations of ethical impropriety, the court has the nine members it needs to resolve close issues that split the justices 4 to 4.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, at the same time, now has at hand in Blackmun an old friend who is similarly middle-aged, Midwestern, white Protestant and of modest origins.

As a starter, then, Burger at least can hope the new man is of a like mind and available to help fulfill President Nixon and Burger's goal—slow down the court's drive for social reform.

The chief justice, by far the most conservative member of the court, put his philosophy best last weekend in New York when he said in a speech that the law is not geared for "giant leaps forward."

Burger said the high court is "hardly the body to be entrusted with the destinies of a free people." And he said judges should not confuse their jobs with those of legislators.

This is the same sort of restraint Blackmun has demonstrated in his 11 years as a federal appeals court judge. It's probably what attracted him to Nixon and to Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell.

The judge's opinions give off hints here and there, in civil rights cases particularly, that Blackmun the man wanted to go

Desegregation Suit Filed by Parents

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit was filed Tuesday asking that an injunction be issued by stop the state Department of Education from paying state funds to school districts that maintain segregated school facilities and programs.

The suit was filed in U.S. District Court by the parents of nine Negro children and is similar to one the Justice Department has said it will file to bring several school districts in the state into compliance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

The Justice Department has agreed to delay its suit to give the districts in the state an opportunity to comply with the law. The Department notified 39 Arkansas districts that they would be sued if they didn't bring themselves into compliance. All but six have said they will attempt to comply voluntarily through negotiations with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Phillip E. Kaplan of Little Rock, an attorney for the plaintiffs, said his clients decided to file the suit themselves because they "don't have much confidence" in the Justice Department.

The plaintiffs in the suit are Mr. and Mrs. Asa M. Christian of the Strong School District in Union County, Mrs. Corrine Woods of the Plum Bayou-Tucker School District in Jefferson County and Mrs. Willie Carthan of the Grady School District in Lincoln County.

Both the Strong and Plum Bayou-Tucker school districts have unified their school systems. The Grady School District has unified its high school and has pledged in a court suit to unify the elementary grades this fall.

The suit names the state Board of Education and the Education Commissioner A. W. Ford as defendants. The defendants are responsible for distributing state aid to school districts under programs established by the legislature.

The suit charges the defendants with: —"Approval or acquiescence in construction plans designed to preserve a dual school system."

—"Failure to standardize and equalize educational opportunities throughout the state."

—"Granting of minimum state aid to districts which have failed to unify their schools."

—"Granting of state financial aid and technical aid to districts which have accepted pupils seeking to avoid attendance in unified districts."

SENATE READY

U.S. thrust into Cambodia by authorizing such action to protect the lives of American forces in Vietnam.

The measures are designed to block the move aimed at barring future U.S. attacks into Cambodia. But a flap developed quickly over whether Scott's proposal had the Nixon administration's backing. Scott indicated it didn't.

During the Tuesday night telecast, Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., said, "This is not a sense of the Congress resolution, it is not a debater's point. It is an act of law, which, if carried, will put an end to this war in a systematic way."

Two Democrats and two Republicans appeared with McGovern in the half-hour program.

They asked for letters, for petitions—and also for contributions to help pay the $75,000 the program cost.

"The President of the United States rightfully can command all media to bring a message to the people . . .," said Sen. Harold Hughes, D-Iowa.

"For those of us who have differing viewpoints, and wish to express those to you, the American people, it requires that we seek your assistance."

The schedule Mansfield has set for the Senate means weeks of debate and voting on issues involving the Indochina war, all in a buildup toward the amendment that would end American involvement.

Appearing on the television program with McGovern and Hughes, were Frank Church, D-Idaho, Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., and Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore.

Mansfield said debate on the amendment to cut off funds for U.S.-Cambodian action will be followed by action on a resolution to repeal the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin resolution.

Unlike the bitter fights over Haynsworth and Carswell, Blackmun's nomination was put to a roll-call vote following speeches by liberal and conservative senators, all in praise.

One, Sen. Ernest F. Hollings, D-S.C., threw jabs at Northern liberals who led the fight against Haynsworth.

He accused the Senate of using a double standard by applying a stiffer test to Southern nominees. Nixon, in turning to Blackmun, had accused the Senate of discrimination against the South.

The six senators who did not vote were Birch Bayh, D-Ind., a leader in the fight against Haynsworth and Carswell; Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.; Albert Gore, D-Tenn.; Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D.; Richard B. Russell, D-Ga.; and John G.

been withdrawn from the Parrot's Beak section of Cambodia about 45 miles west of Saigon.

Later, headquarters reported the withdrawal of one-third of the 4th Division task force operating more than 200 miles to the north in the Se San base area of Cambodia, about 50 miles west of Pleiku City.

U.S. Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said in Washington earlier that several thousand American troops already had been withdrawn from Cambodia.

Sources said the 9th Division unit had secured Ba Thu, about a mile inside Cambodia, after the North Vietnamese base area had been seized by South Vietnamese, U.S. losses during the week of occupation were reported as four killed and 20 wounded.

The U.S. Command said today that all U.S. losses in Cambodia totaled 101 killed and 427 wounded.

Official sources have said 14,000 to 16,000 U.S. troops and 18,000 to 20,000 South Vietnamese troops are operating inside Cambodia on more than a dozen fronts on both sides of the Mekong River.

U.S. Senate Is Storm Center Controversy, Plays Role to Hilt

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Senate, storm center of national controversy over much of its existence, has played the role to the hilt in the opening months of the Nixon administration.

Bitter fights over the Vietnam war, appointments to the Supreme Court, national tax policy and civil rights have come to swirling climaxes on the Senate floor or in its committee rooms.

The fact that the Senate is the primary pit for debate on public issues—a fact lost on few, if any, presidents of the United States—finally has dawned on the youth of America intent upon questioning the judgment of their elders.

When the Vietnam Moratorium Committee concluded that street demonstrations no longer were an effective tactic for protesting the war, and its leaders went their separate ways, one of them signed on with the National Student Association to organize students for political action, specifically to work in this summer's campaigns for the Senate.

To David Hawk it was a simple choice. "The Senate," he said, "is where the action is."

As if heeding his advice, this day finds hundreds of college-aged youngsters trudging the corridors of the Capitol, practically stumbling over themselves as they buttonhole congressmen and senators, urging a vote against President Nixon's policies in Southeast Asia.

While members of the House are getting their share of advice, the young people are concentrating on the Senate, urged on by such senators as Democrat Richard Hughes of Iowa, who has instructed some of them in the techniques of lobbying, and Democrat George McGovern of South Dakota, who made it plain why the Senate should be their No. 1 target.

"This is where we have a chance to stop the war," McGovern told them.

Whether the Senate has a chance or not it is likely to speed the next several weeks trying as it takes up a series of proposals—to cut off funds for the war in Cambodia, to repeal the Tonkin Gulf resolution, to set limits on the amount of "excess" military equipment the Pentagon can hand over to friendly nations—in a head-to-head fight with the Nixon administration.

It will not be the first confrontation between the two, nor is it likely to be the last.

While few presidents have had reason to view the Senate as anything more than a cross they had to bear, none has had more reason to view it sourly than Lyndon Johnson and Richard Nixon.

In fact, the present series of disputes began before Nixon when the senators decided their old leader, Johnson, couldn't have his friend, Abe Fortas, as chief justice of the United States.

Fortas, earlier confirmed as one of the high court's justices, resigned last year after disclosures concerning outside financial activities.

Johnson went on to have trouble with the Senate over the 10 per cent income surtax and other fiscal matters, an area that has continued to produce conflict between the senators and Nixon.

But it's the Vietnam war that has made the sparks fly. Not since the century's second decade when President Woodrow Wilson fought and lost over the League of Nations have foreign relations been so bitter and divisive an issue between the White House and Senate.

At first, in the mid-1960s, the major antiwar senators were Wayne Morse of Oregon and Alaska's Ernest Gruening, both Democrats and both losers in 1968 re-election bids.

But the opposition has grown and some say makes up a majority of the Senate.

She is trying to dominate our social functions, members, management and employees, and she expects special privileges. Helen, how do we women tell her. We like the atmosphere of our club before she got pushy? We don't want to make her mad.

—UPSET

Dear Upset: ... And you don't get much help from your men, right?

If both males and females agree this gal is too pushy, she'd soon lose her pull—one person can't dominate unless she has followers. So prove to your husbands that she is more "managing" than ravishing and perhaps she'll stop being a menace.—H. Dear Helen: You recommended "tolerance" for the homosexual "who doesn't bother anybody." No matter how selective he is, he bothers us normal people! Read your Bible, Romans 1:27-32, among other chapters, and then dare to say "tolerance is on the way" for these depraved and loathsome creatures.—GOING BY THE BIBLE

Dear Going: In reading the passage you suggested, I came across another which I recommend to folks like you: Matthew 7:1. ("Judge not that ye be not judged.")—H.

Dear Helen: I have recently learned that my younger brother is a homosexual. He called me and told me, and I promised not to tell our parents, but I'm going crazy wondering how I can help when he lives over 100 miles away.

He is on the dean's list at college besides holding down a full time job. He is the perfect picture of young manhood, though more gentle and kind than most. I always thought this was an extra quality that made him even more special, but he says it has set him apart. He was never a troublemaker, loves kids and animals, is very talented in art and music.

He tells me he is going to a psychiatrist, but the guy just listens to him. Is there anything I can do?—MARRIED SISTER

Dear Sister: Your brother has faced his problem and is seeking expert help. From you, he needs tolerance, friendship, hope, assurance that you'll stand by. I know you won't let him down.—H.

Dear Helen: My wife's snoring is unbelievable. When I mention it to her she says she can't help it. Even if I slept in the other bedroom, I'd hear it. No amount of poking, or making her change positions helps for long. How can I get a little sleep?—A.S.

Dear A: Your letter will fetch snore cures by the dozen, but none will be quite so effective as ear plugs—especially if you wear them in the other bedroom and manage to fall asleep before your wife buzzes off.—H.

CIRCLE NO. 1 WSCS MEETS

Circle No. 1 of WSCS met on Monday in the home of Mrs. Sam Strong, Mrs. C. V. Nunn co-hostess.

Mrs. Johnnie Greene prayed the opening prayer, after which the leader Mrs. Albert Graves conducted the business session. There was a general discussion on what do we get out of WSCS work?

A special pleasure was the rendition of "Sabbath Prayer" from Fiddler on the Roof, by Mrs. Harry McLenore, Mrs. Clarence Geist and Mrs. Sam Strong accompanied by Mrs. Art Stretch.

Mrs. C.V. Nunn presented the program on "The American Indian" which was enjoyed.

During the social hour the hostesses served strawberry cake, coffee or punch with salted nuts to the 20 members and 3 guests.

DORCAS CLASS MEETS

The Dorcas Sunday School class of the Garrett Memorial Baptist church met in the home of Mrs. James Braden Thursday night, May 7, for the monthly meeting. Mrs. Vance Marcum, vice president, conducted a short business meeting which was closed with prayer by Mrs. David Frith. The hostess presented a very enlightening devotion on "Hands," and gave each member an opportunity to voice their individual appreciation of their mother.

During the social hour games were played with prizes going to Mrs. David Frith, and Mrs. Roger Fletcher. The guests were invited into the den for refreshments which consisted of very delicious snacks, salad, cold drinks and coffee.

INDIAN CULTURE DISCUSSED

"It takes years to build a meaningful human relationship," Mrs. Everett Vinson told Circle 5, WSCS, in discussing Navaho Indian youth and culture at a meeting Monday night, May 11 in the home of Mrs. W.M. Reinhardt. Mrs. Henry Seaman was co-hostess for the Methodist meeting, when the ministry of reconciliation was studied.

From 2 John 4:7-12 the speaker presented a devotional message, "God is Love," in which the church's mission was defined as "people loving people," and a meaningful definition of love was given in a quotation from the late Helen Keller.

Congratulations were given to Mrs. Wesley Huddleston, an active member of the circle who was recently presented a Life Membership in the WSCS. Mrs. Herman Wilson was welcomed as a new member of the circle, and Mrs. Vinson was voted Member of the Month for May, which means her name will be added to a list of members in whose name a gift to the Methodist Children's Home will be made at Christmas.

At the conclusion of a business meeting conducted by Circle Chairman Mary Anita Laseater, members joined hands and repeated the benediction. Strawberry pie was served with tea or coffee to 16.

Ouachita Baptist College at Arkadelphia, Ark., where he received a BA degree in Economics in 1958, and an ROTC commission as a 2nd Lieutenant. While a student at Ouachita, he was a member of the Scabbard & Blade and Pershing Rifles Fraternities.

He entered the Army after graduation from Ouachita Baptist College.

During his Army career, Major Owen has served in Korea; Monroe, La., at the Northeast Louisiana State College as an ROTC instructor; in Vietnam in 1966-67; in Monroe again at the Northeast Louisiana State College; and then again in Vietnam during 1968-69. He arrived at this headquarters in September 1969 and assumed his present assignment.

In addition to two Silver Stars, Major Owen holds the following awards: the Distinguished Flying Cross, three Bronze Star Medals, seven Air Medals, two Army Commendation Medals, two Purple Hearts, the National Defense Service Medal, two Vietnam Crosses of Gallantry, and the Vietnam Service Medal and the Vietnam Campaign Ribbon with five stars.

The citation accompanying his second Silver Star Medal stated: "Major Owen distinguished himself while serving as Battalion Operations Officer for the 1st Battalion, 12th Infantry, 4th Infantry Division. On 31 May, 1969, elements of the 1st Battalion 12th Infantry were engaged in heavy contact with enemy forces southwest of Landing Zone Nicole. Major Owens was coordinating operations in the area from a light observation helicopter when he observed ten North Vietnamese soldiers placing fire on the friendly positions. Leaning out of the aircraft, Major Owen fired on the enemy, killing eight and forcing the remaining two to flee into a woodline. He then adjusted accurate artillery fire on the bulk of the enemy positions, allowing the friendly elements to maneuver. It was during his adjustment of artillery support fire that Major Owen was seriously wounded."

Major Owen and his wife, Barbara, reside in Riverdale, Ga., with their three children, Nancy II, Gary 9, and Laurie 7.

Olympic Bids to Denver, Montreal

AMSTERDAM (AP) — Two North American cities—Montreal and Denver—have been selected as sites for the 1976 Olympics.

The International Olympic Committee, in an unexpected move, picked Montreal Tuesday over Moscow and Los Angeles for the 1976 Summer Games. Denver got the nod for the Winter Olympics.

There was elation, naturally, from Montreal and mile-high Denver, which will celebrate the 100th year of Colorado statehood as the entire United States marks its 200th anniversary. From the losers, however, there were expressions of bitterness.

The Soviet Union claimed Montreal's selection was "contrary to logic and common sense . . . a blow at the Olympic movement and its ideals."

"We were the victims of the Cold War," said Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles. "The committee apparently didn't want to take sides between the United States and Russia and took the easy way out."

The Olympic Games have never been held in a Communist country and the decision against Moscow was obviously a blow to Soviet national pride. Tass, the official Soviet news agency, fumed and fussed about the vote, but there were no indications from Tass that the Russians would boycott the Olympics.

Yorty, in expressing unhappiness, said he considered the decision even more of a shock to the Russians. "They probably hardly dare to go home."

Moscow led on first ballot but did not have the required majority. That vote was 28 for the Russian capital, 24 for Montreal and 17 for Los Angeles. On the second ballot, with Los Angeles eliminated, Montreal got 41 votes and Moscow 28 with one vote voided.

Denver won the Winter Games' on the third ballot, defeating Sion, Switzerland 30-30. Other cities bidding for the Winter Olympics of 1976 were Vancouver, British Columbia, and Tampere, Finland. Vancouver had been the pre-meeting favorite but, since no nation has ever been the site for Winter and Summer games in the same Olympic year, lost out when Montreal surprisingly won the Summer Olympics.

The IOC usually picks the sites some six years in advance. The 1972 Summer Olympics will be staged at Munich, Germany. Sapporo, Japan will be the site for the 1972 Winter Games.

The cost of staging the Olympics is staggering. Los Angeles, which had the Summer Games in 1932, claims it is the only city that hasn't lost money.

Montreal, however, contends it won't lose money. Jean Drapeau, mayor of the predominantly French speaking city of 2½ million population, says the Olympics won't cost Canadian taxpayers a dime.

Drapeau pledged to build an 80,000-seat stadium, an Olympic village, a swimming pool and a press center to go with the Canadian city's existing athletic and housing facilities.

The Montreal mayor estimated the press center and Olympic village will cost $12 million but he says both facilities can be converted to low-rental housing and qualify for funds under provincial urban renewal legislation.

Building of the giant stadium will cost an estimated $40 million but Drapeau says Montreal will cover this outlay and additional expenditures with more than an estimated $50 million in television and radio revenues.

Yachting events will be conducted on Lake Ontario, near Montreal. The Summer Games will be conducted in August.

Denver called its selection a salute to the phenomenal growth of skiing in the American West.

can state since World War II. A drive to win the 1976 Winter Games had been under way by Denver since 1968.

Planned dates in 1976 for the Winter Olympics are Feb. 20-29. Denver officials estimate the total cost will exceed $30 million. Denver must build facilities for downhill ski racing, ski jumping, bobsled, one-man sledge events and for speed skating. Sites are available for ski slalom events and ice hockey. The University of Denver will accommodate 2,500 athletes when it turns its residence halls into an Olympic Village.

All mountain sites will be within 45 minutes driving time, or less, from Denver.

State to Play Texas in Bid for Tourney

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Former Texas baseball coach Bibb Falk said Tuesday the Longhorns have never played in a three-team tournament for a NCAA world series berth, but added "If you've got clubs that are eligible, you've got to have it."

Texas, the Southwest Conference champion, will play Southland Conference king Arkansas State and independent Pan American College May 28-30 at a site to be determined to decide the NCAA Dist. 6 representative. "There's nothing you can say," Falk said. "Hell, you just sit back and people tell you what to do. If the teams with (good enough) records are there, you've got to consider them."

Falk recalls that Texas had to play Houston and then Arizona one year to get to the world series. He also mentioned that a four-team tournament is held in the Carolinas.

Texas has a 33-6 record, Arkansas State is 16-15 and Pan American is 31-10. Pan American won six of seven games against Big 10 teams and compiled an 11-5 record against Southwest Conference outfits.

Tornado Fails to Halt Grid Game Plans

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — The 10th annual Coaches All-American football game scheduled for June 27 still is on despite Monday night's tornado which damaged some light structures at Jones Stadium.

Two poles with high-intensity lights for color television were toppled. About half the lights were smashed.

However, Texas Tech Athletic Director J. T. King said engineers assured him the poles and lights could be repaired in time for the night game which is scheduled to be nationally televised.

The stadium itself was not damaged and the recently installed artificial turf was unscathed.

Australia Is No Match for Americans

SARAJEVO, Yugoslavia (AP) — Tal Brody, 6-foot-2 former Illinois star, threw in 21 points as the United States routed Australia 99-62 and qualified for the final round in the World Amateur Basketball Championships. The halftime score was 44-30.

The victory Tuesday night put the Americans in the final competition against Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and four other teams still to be decided.

The finals open on Saturday in Ljubljana. The Czechs gained the final by shading Cuba 82-80. Ken Washington was second high scorer for the Americans with 17 points. Garfield Smith scored 10 points.

Ken Cole was high for the Aussies with 16.

Orioles Beat an Almost Pat Hand

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
With swift Rod Carew dancing off first base, a Minnesota teammate perched 90 feet from home and Harmon Killebrew swinging his big club, the Twins had all the makings of a pat hand.

Then Bill Rigney placed his bet . . . and the Baltimore Orioles scooped up another stack of chips.

Pete Richert, summoned from the bullpen in the midst of a ninth inning Minnesota uprising Tuesday night, stranded the tying run at third by kissing off Killebrew and Carew with one pitch to save a 5-4 victory for the torrid Orioles.

Richert fired a third strike past Killebrew, and Carew was doubled up trying to steal second for the final out, giving the Orioles their eighth straight victory.

"I gambled they wouldn't strike out Killebrew," said Twins' manager Rigney, who had flashed the steal sign to Carew. "They're all lousy players when they don't work."

While Baltimore maintained its six-game lead in the American League East, the Twins slipped into second place in the West, one game behind the California Angels, who rallied for four ninth inning runs to nip Boston 6-5.

Oakland topped Washington 5-3 in 11 innings; the New York Yankees downed Milwaukee 9-5 and the Chicago White Sox whipped Detroit 7-2 in other AL action. Kansas City was rained out at Cleveland.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs edged Atlanta 4-3 in 11 innings; the New York Mets topped Montreal 8-4; Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh 5-3; Houston ripped Los Angeles 5-3; St. Louis slugged Philadelphia 9-5 and San Diego shaded San Francisco 6-5.

Jim Holt launched Minnesota's ninth-inning bid by drawing a leadoff walk and then beating the throw to second on Cesar Tovar's sacrifice bunt. Eddie Watt, working in relief of winner Mike Cuellar, went to a 2-2 count on the lefthand hitting Carew before being replaced by Richert, a southpaw.

"I wanted Watt to face Killebrew," said Orioles' skipper Earl Weaver. "But when he gets the 2-2 count, you have to throw him a strike anyway and I'd rather have a left-hander throw against Carew."

Weaver's strategy began to pay off when Richert got Carew to bounce into a force at second. Holt took third on the play, but got no farther as the Twins' run-and-hit gamble backfired.

Frank Robinson and Don Buford each drove in two Baltimore runs and Elrod Hendricks collected four of the Orioles' 14 hits off loser Jim Perry and two relievers.

Billy Cowan capped California's ninth-inning flurry with a two-run single, giving the Angels their sixth victory in seven games. Tony Conigliaro hit a two-run homer for the Red Sox.

Sal Bando, who had driven in two first-inning runs with a single, slammed a two-run homer in the 11th, boosting Oakland past the Senators. The game was marked by a sixth-inning fistfight between Washington's Mike Epstein and catcher Dave Duncan of the A's after a collision at the plate.

Jerry Kenney, who stroked three hits, and Curt Blefary delivered two runs apiece as the Yanks snapped Milwaukee's winning streak at five in a game halted by rain with two out in the bottom of the ninth.

The White Sox scored four runs in the eighth, erasing a 1-0 Detroit lead, and added three more in the ninth. Center fielder Jim Northrup fell in a puddle chasing Ken Berry's leadoff drive in the eighth and it went for a triple, touching off the deciding rally.

Although Dust Commander's five-length victory in the Derby was a surprise, Hart said he was impressed by the performance and felt the public reaction was similar and would carry over to the betting on the 13-horse Preakness field.

My Dad George, runnerup in the Derby, was made the second choice by Hart at 4-1.

Commander Is Made the Favorite

BALTIMORE (AP) — Kentucky Derby winner Dust Commander has been made the 3-1 favorite for Saturday's $150,000-added Preakness by Earl Hart, the official odds-maker at Pimlico.

Although Dust Commander's five-length victory in the Derby was a surprise, Hart said he was impressed by the performance and felt the public reaction was similar and would carry over to the betting on the 13-horse Preakness field.

My Dad George, runnerup in the Derby, was made the second choice by Hart at 4-1.

Ben Hogan Returning to Hogan' Alley

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Ben Hogan returns Thursday to "Hogan's Alley," site of his last professional triumph, and will be at least a sentimental favorite to capture his sixth Colonial National Invitation golf championship.

But the legendary Texas Hawk, who played his first tournament in almost three years last week, said he is not a threat for the title in the $125,000 event.

"I shouldn't even be playing," the 57-year-old master said.

"I've practiced too much recently and I'm tired. And I really don't know the course anymore. I haven't played it in three-four years and they've changed it since then."

The site of the silver anniversary of the tourney that Hogan won five times is the plush, 7,143-yard par 70 Colonial Country Club course, nicknamed Hogan's Alley.

It was on this course that he won his last event, the 1959 Colonial.

Two holes were rebuilt from tee to green last year because of a flood-control project and less drastic changes were made on seven others.

But Hogan demonstrated in Houston last week, that despite his age, absence from the game and an ailing left knee, he still is a force to be reckoned with. He managed a final-round 70, one-under-par, and finished in the top 13, just five strokes off the pace at the Champions International Tournament.

He announced then he would play in the Colonial but added, "I have no plans beyond that."

The favorite's role, however, will probably go to Jack Nicklaus, the Ohio strongman who won his last start and has finished lower than eighth only once in his last eleven tournaments.

Nicklaus, who won the Byron Nelson Classic in a playoff with Arnold Palmer two weeks ago, faces his biggest challenge from leading money-winner Lee Trevino and South African Gary Player. Trevino has picked up about $95,000 this year while the consistent Player came on strongly to take fourth place last week. Frank Beard, winner of the Tournament of Champions in his last start, also is a top contender for the $25,000 first prize.

John Schroeder, the rookie who chased Nicklaus and Palmer to the final hole of the Byron Nelson and Gibby Gilbert, upset winner at Houston Sunday, were late

IOC Turns Attention to Politics

AMSTERDAM (AP) — The International Olympics Committee turns its attention today to questions of politics and commercialism in sports—two thorny problems.

The IOC, which Tuesday picked Montreal and Denver for the 1976 summer and winter games, respectively, has been asked by its 86-year-old chairman, Avery Brundage of the United States, to eliminate Alpine skiing from Olympic competition.

Banks, Allen Provide the Winning Hits

By DICK JOYCE

Associated Press Sports Writer
Ernie Banks has reached another plateau while Richie Allen is reaching for the sky.

The 39-year-old Banks banged out his 500th career homer Tuesday in helping the Chicago Cubs edge the Atlanta Braves 4-3 in 11 innings.

Allen unloaded a 450-foot blast that carried more than 60 feet above the Busch Stadium left field wall to lead the St. Louis Cardinals to a 9-5 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies.

"I don't know about distance and all that," said Allen, the once-unhappy Phillie, "but I will say there's nothing too good for the fans of St. Louis."

In other National League games Cincinnati topped Pittsburgh 5-3, San Diego edged San Francisco 6-5, Houston downed Los Angeles 8-3 and New York beat Montreal 8-4.

Baltimore nipped Minnesota 5-4, Chicago upended Detroit 7-2, New York ripped Milwaukee 9-5, California edged Boston 6-5 and Oakland defeated Washington 5-3 in 11 innings in American League action. Kansas City at Cleveland was rained out.

In slamming his 11th homer of the season and third in three games, Allen joined four others who have reached the upper deck in St. Louis — Willie McCovey, Orlando Cepeda, Mike Shannon and Deron Johnson.

Shannon commented: "Mine was a high fly. Richie will hit some further than that one, you can bet. I've already seen him hit some in practice."

Joe Lague and Allen drove in four runs apiece while Lou Brock collected four hits in backing up Chuck Taylor's four-hit relief pitching through seven innings.

Banks' homer came in the second inning off Pat Jarvis for his third of the season, putting him with eight others in the 500-club, headed by Babe Ruth's 714.

He admitted that the pressure to hit No. 500 was getting to him. "I was thinking about it on and off the field almost all the time," said the man socked his first homer on Sept. 20, 1953 against Gerry Staley, in St. Louis. "Before games Leo Durocher and others on the team would talk to me. They could tell it was building up."

Ron Santo's scratch single with the bases loaded in the 11th pulled the Cubs past Atlanta. Billy Williams hit his 12th homer of the year to send the game into extra innings. The Braves' Rico Carty extended his hit streak to 30, seven short of Tommy Holmes' league mark.

Cincinnati's Jim Merritt pitched a four-hitter against Pittsburgh to become the majors' first seven-game winner this year. Lee May belted a tie-breaking homer in the seventh and Johnny Bench delivered a two-run shot in the ninth. Roberto Clemente homered for the Pirates.

San Diego took advantage of three San Francisco errors and two bases-loaded walks to beat the Giants. Tom Dukes' tight relief pitching nailed down the victory after Willie McCovey tagged starter Mike Corkins for his 10th homer in the seventh, reducing the San Diego lead to

Hope Girls Win Softball Contest

By BILL MOORE

Yesterday at K-Park the Hope Girls softball team shelled Prescott, 18-12, for their 2nd victory against one loss.

They will play on Saturday, at Prescott, in a tournament for the championship.

Hope took a quick lead in the 1st inning with 5 runs but at the end of 3 innings it was tied up at 7 each. The 5th inning was altogether different as Hope zeroed in on victory with 8 runs to Prescott's 1.

A 4 run inning for Prescott in the 6th closed the gap to 3 runs, but 3 for Hope in the bottom half of the inning iced the game.

The winning pitcher was Nan Arnold while Bonnie Willis led Hope with 4 hits. The loser was Pat Harris.

Cowling's Single Earns Victory for Angels

ANAHEIM (AP) — Billy Cowan's two-run single capped a four-run burst in the ninth inning and gave the California Angels a 6-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night. The victory, sixth for the Angels in their last seven starts, sent them into first place in the American League West, one game ahead of the Minnesota Twins, who bowed to Baltimore 5-4.

Check Shows Coaches Are Best Paid

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The situation at Malvern, where coaches receive higher salaries than classroom teachers, is not unusual according to a spot check of the salary schedules of Arkansas school districts. The check indicates that coaches are usually paid more than classroom teachers with comparable degrees and experience. Malvern teachers complained to the School Board last week that coaches were given an average raise of $700 a year while classroom teachers received $125. Some school officials contend that coaches put in more hours than teachers in the classrooms. In some instances, coaches have contracts for longer than the usual nine months given classroom teachers and this reduces the average amount of their monthly paycheck. Here is a comparison of some of the districts for the current school year as listed with the State Education Department: Berryville — A coach with a bachelor's degree and six years experience, $6,600; an elementary teacher with the same degree and experience, $5,750. Brinkley — A physical education teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience, $6,800 and another with a bachelor's degree and one year's experience, $7,080; a social studies teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience, $5,508 and a business education teacher with a bachelor's degree and one year's experience, $5,508. Conway — An athletic director with a master's degree and 11 years experience, $7,900 and a physical education instructor with a bachelor's degree and two years experience, $6,800; a math teacher with 14 years experience, $6,700 and an algebra and geometry teacher with a bachelor's degree and two years experience $5,300. El Dorado — A coach with 9 1/2 years experience and a bachelor's degree, $9,855 and one with a bachelor's degree and nine years experience, $8,160; a commercial teacher with a bachelor's degree and 9 1/2 years experience $6,942 and a math teacher with the same degree and nine years experience, $6,805. Forrest City — A coach with a master's degree and three years experience $7,235; a commercial education instructor with a bachelor's degree and two years experience $6,235. Fort Smith — A coach-athletic director at one high school with a master's and 25 years experience, $11,136 and an English teacher with a master's and 36 years experience, $8,132. Greenbrier — A coach with nine years experience and a bachelor's degree, $7,150 and another with the same degree and a year's experience, $6,150; two elementary teachers, both with bachelor's degrees, one with 10 years experience and one with one year, both $5,600. Harrison — A coach with a bachelor's degree and nine years experience, $7,900 and another with a master's and 16 years experience, $7,700; a special education teacher with a master's degree and 16 years experience, $6,100 and a short-hand teacher with a bachelor's and 11 years experience, $5,800. Silent Screen Needs Blinkers to Regain Form

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP)—Blinkers have been prescribed as the possible long shot remedy needed for Silent Screen to regain the form which made him racing's 2 year-old champion of 1969. "It's a shot in the dark — maybe only one chance in 100 that it will work," trainer J. Bond conceded today. "But we've got to take a chance." The first test of the blinkers will come at Pimlico Saturday in the 1 3/16 mile Preakness, the richest of the Triple Crown races which will gross more than $200,000 and provide the winner with $149,300 if it starts as expected. "Going for all that money, I'm a little shaky wondering if I'm doing right," Bond said. "I'd feel like a fool if the blinkers make him run worse. Sometimes they help; sometimes they hurt." Silent Screen finished fifth in the 1 1/4 mile Kentucky Derby, faltering in the stretch after being suddenly thrust into the lead when the speed horses quit. That wasn't the first time the 3-year-old colt from Sonny Werblin's Elberon Farm faltered after gaining the lead, and it set Bond to thinking. "A couple of other times he got the lead and then kind of lost interest," Bond said. "Of course, it could be that he just got tired and couldn't make it. "Maybe this horse doesn't want to go a mile and a quarter, but he never will if it's because he loses interest. That's why we want to try the blinkers." The whip apparently no longer intimidates Silent Screen, so Bond hopes to keep the colt's mind on his business through the subtle means of an equipment change. Silent Screen broke from the gate in a workout last Saturday, using blinkers for the first time, and satisfied Bond. Silent Screen won five of six starts and $397,966 last year, and opened the current campaign with a victory in the Bahamas. But then he was injured in the Flamingo on March 3, and was rested almost a month before finishing third in the Gotham and second in the Wood. "The Gotham and the Wood were competitive races, and he seemed to be coming back," Bond said. "But we weren't happy with the Derby. That's why we're taking a chance with the blinkers." The Preakness field is headed by Dust Commander, the Derby winner, and the others who finished in front of Silent Screen at Churchill Downs — My Dad George, High Echelon and Naskra.

Results in Tuesday's Elections

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Negro engineer Kenneth Gibson won 42.7 per cent of the vote in Newark, N.J. Tuesday to set up the city's first black-white mayoral runoff. He will face indicted incumbent Hugh J. Addonizio. Primary voters in West Virginia and Nebraska strongly backed U.S. Senate incumbents.

In Newark, where Negroes represent a majority of population but not of registered voters, Gibson outpolled Addonizio by better than 2 to 1 but did not win a majority and thus set up the runoff.

Gibson won 37,666 votes and Addonizio 17,925 in the six-man field. Third with 13,904 was City Councilman Anthony Imperiale, a militant law and order advocate who set up a white citizen patrol after the 1967 race riot.

Addonizio is under federal indictment for extortion and income tax evasion. His trial is scheduled to begin June 2, two weeks before the June 16 runoff.

Gibson, 37, who ran third in 1966 when Addonizio won a second term, told supporters the runoff was "a very clear choice, not between black and white but between honesty and continued corruption."

The total vote for white candidates in the primary was 48,333 while Gibson and another Negro polled a combined 39,830.

In Nebraska, Republican Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann defeated state Sen. Clifford B. Batchelder.

The Democratic gubernatorial primary was close with Lincoln businessman J. J. Exon leading state Sen. J. W. Burbach, a small town grain dealer and livestock feeder.

U.S. Sen. Roman Hruska won Republican renomination easily over minor opposition and former Gov. Frank B. Morrison took the Democratic nomination, setting the stage for a rematch of their 1958 contest.

Sen. Robert C. Byrd, 52, overwhelmingly defeated John J. McOwen, 45, a Huntington lawyer who had challenged Byrd's "conservative, reactionary views." No Republican has been named to oppose Byrd in November.

Some Question Now About Auto Talks

By A. F. MAHAN
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP) — With Walter P. Reuther dead, the big question that arises is what his death will mean to upcoming contract talks between his United Auto Workers union and the nation's car makers.

Already some observers on both sides here say Reuther's death in a plane crash has heightened possibilities of a strike—with its impact on the nation's economy.

Their reasoning: Both the union and the industry had taken tough stances even before the accident, and Gov. William Milliken had spoken of "an anticipated strike in the automobile industry" in an economic report to the Michigan Legislature.

Industry now fears the man who takes Reuther's place at the bargaining table in mid-July may come there determined to prove himself even tougher than his former chief.

The union fears, regardless of who is chosen union president after Reuther's funeral Friday, that the industry will lose no time in putting him to the test.

And there's fear elsewhere the next man may not have Reuther's sense of timing of when to give and take, a knack that won the UAW many firsts in industrial union contracts—a "guaranteed annual income," for instance.

Under the UAW constitution, Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey became acting president, but the man who will head the union until its 1972 convention will be named by the remaining 25 members of the international executive board. Its next scheduled meeting is June 2.

The impact of auto industry pacts reach far beyond General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and American Motors. The 1.6 million-member UAW uses them as a pattern in bargaining in scores of auto supplier plants and in the aerospace and agricultural implement industries.

That adds to sideline pressures on both the companies

Wednesday, May 13, 1970 and the union.

The Big Three—GM, Ford and Chrysler—have reported sagging sales and profits the last two quarters. With contracts expiring next Sept. 14, these three firms come up first for negotiations.

UAW leaders say members have been feeling the pinch of the rising cost of living, along with widespread layoffs. They have adopted a wide-ranging set of economic demands to over-ride inflation.

Senate Ready for Cambodia Funds Debate

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate stood ready today to begin a great debate on the war in Southeast Asia, a debate likely to continue for the announced duration of U.S. operations in Cambodia.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said the opening round, set late today or Thursday, involves an amendment to cut off funds for U.S. operations in Cambodia effective June 30.

That is the deadline announced by President Nixon for withdrawal of American forces he sent across the border to destroy Communist sanctuaries and supply depots.

In a preview of the long debate ahead, five critics of U.S. policy appeared in an unprecedented network television broadcast for public support of legislation to compel American withdrawal from South Vietnam.

That broadcast, and the Senate timetable designed by Mansfield, are part of a campaign, Democratic sources said, to gain votes for a phased cutoff of appropriations to finance U.S. military operations in Cambodia, then in Laos, then in South Vietnam itself.

Meantime, two Republican senators, GOP Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, and Robert J. Dole of Kansas, introduced proposals to put the Senate's stamp of approval on the

Husbands Really Tired of Hearing the Same Old Remarks From Wife

NEW YORK (AP) — Wifely remarks that husbands get tired of hearing:

"Get up and go earn me a living."

"Well, if it is burned a little, just scrape it off."

"I know one thing for sure: if I ever marry a second time, it certainly won't be for love. I've tried that."

"You must be the laughing-stock of your office, the way you do all the work and everybody else gets all the credit—and the money."

"Harry, you're driving too fast!"

"What do you mean, why can't I make it last another year? Do you realize how long I've had that fur coat? I bought it three years before we were married and I paid for it myself—no thanks to you."

"Is it all right if I throw away this cigar stub, or would you rather I wrapped it in a plastic bag and keep it in the freezer until you feel like stinking up the house with it again?"

U.S., South Vietnam Patrol Keeps Enemy From Supplying Men

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new U.S.-South Vietnamese naval patrol is intended to prevent the North Vietnamese from re-establishing a major channel of supplies from the sea to their forces in Cambodia, Pentagon officials say.

A major seaborne source of supplies for the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong in Cambodia was choked off some weeks ago when the new Phnom Penh regime denied the use of the Port of Sihanoukville for such aid.

Nixon administration sources have reported North Vietnamese troops were trying to open a new supply route from their inland Cambodian base areas to the Gulf of Siam east of Sihanoukville.

The enemy's apparent intent was to gain control of a coastal section where supplies could be landed from ships over the beach, officials said.

The new naval patrol along a 100-mile stretch of the Cambodian coast is designed to close off approaches to that area by North Vietnamese shipping, officials said.

The operation is described as an extension of long-standing naval patrols off the South Vietnamese coast. Authorities claim these patrols have largely succeeded in preventing seaborne infiltration of weapons and other supplies carried down from North Vietnam in various kinds of craft.

Defense authorities said they had no information indicating any sizable number of North Vietnamese vessels were headed for the Cambodian coast. But they called the patrol a preventive measure against possible future shipments.

The Rev. Gordon Renshaw will give the devotional and the Rev. Walter White the invocation. Music will be provided by the HHS Band and choir.

W.E. Tolleson, president of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas.

Other senior activities scheduled are the final examinations on May 15, 18, and 19. A senior awards Banquet will be at the Town and Country Restaurant Thursday, May 14, at 7:30 p.m. Only the Senior Class members will attend the banquet.

According to Principal Joe Barentine, there are no other senior activities scheduled by Hope High School other than normal activities during school hours.

Texarkana Blast Felt 30 Miles

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — An explosion at the Lone Star Army Ammunition plant west of here Tuesday night was felt as far away as Ashdown and Nashville, Ark., some 30 miles.

A plant spokesman said the explosion occurred as employees were burning detonators at the burning grounds, which are used to destroy faulty ammunition.

No injuries were reported, but plant spokesmen declined to comment on any damage at the plant.

Police on both sides of Texarkana were flooded with calls as the force of the blast set off several burglar alarms in stores and rattled doors and windows.

There were reports of a bright flash in the sky moments before the explosion occurred.

Cambodia Withdrawal Has Started

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command announced today the first American troop withdrawal from Cambodia. At the same time South Vietnamese forces launched a drive along Highway 1 toward the capital of Phnom Penh, 50 miles away.

Associated Press correspondent David Rosenzweig reported that a South Vietnamese armored column accompanied by U.S. advisers pushed up Highway 1 from the provincial capital of Svay Rieng to Kompong Trabek, 25 miles to the west. The armored column linked up with South Vietnamese marines driving up the Mekong River, then engaged about 600 enemy troops three miles beyond Kompong Trabek in heavy fighting.

The announced purpose of the drive was to clear Highway 1 for the repatriation of Vietnamese in Cambodia.

Informal sources said the initial U.S. troop withdrawals from Cambodia totaled fewer than 2,000 men.

The command first announced that elements of the 3rd Brigade, 9th Infantry Division, had

No Opposition in Senate to Blackmun

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge Harry A. Blackmun's Supreme Court nomination has swept through the Senate without opposition, ending President Nixon's long fight to fill a vacant seat with a man he regards as a strict constructionist.

The Senate's 94-0 confirmation vote Tuesday means the 61-year-old Rochester, Minn., jurist is eligible to assume the post at any time, although Blackmun's office and the high court said no time has been set.

In Rochester, Blackmun took the news of the Senate in typical low-keyed fashion, saying "I'm just not up to making any verbal statement."

But in a written statement, Blackmun said "I am troubled by an awareness of the awesome responsibility of this new assignment. I sincerely hope that I have the character and the strength and the intellectual capacity adequately to fulfill it."

Bond Issue and Urban Renewal Money For Hope

The office of Congressman John Paul Hammerschmidt notified the Star by telephone Wednesday that the Department of Housing and Urban Development has announced approval of a $1,281,343 renewal and planning grant to Hope.

Added to what already has been approved this brings to Hope a grant of $2,398,343 for improvement of approximately 77.3 acres, primarily in the downtown area with a small portion in a very rundown residential area. The money is for rehabilitation and conversion and general improvements.

HUD has also entered into an agreement with the City for an immediate grant of $146,599 for planning. The ratio for the money is about 3 to 1, the latter the city's portion.

The area involved is from the Missouri Pacific Railway down to 7th Street and takes in a small L shaped area east.

City Manager Garland Medders said today that money the city has already spent and is spending for improvements in the area will probably amount to enough for Hope's share of the urban renewal project.

PARIS (AP) — The peace talks in Paris mark their second anniversary today with little in the way of agreement having been reached among participants.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge Harry A. Blackmun's Supreme Court nomination has been approved by the Senate in a 94-0 vote, ending President Nixon's long fight to fill a vacant seat with a man he considers a strict constructionist.

A team of Ralph Nader's student investigators, in a lengthy task force report on air pollution, has accused both President Nixon and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of passively supporting the build-up of deadly contaminants in the atmosphere. The groups said ineffective laws added to corporate irresponsibility have permitted the air to become so fouled that "almost no city street in America is safe."

The City has recently received approval of the traffic Division of the Highway Department to install a traffic light at the intersection of Hervey Street and Highway 67. The Board of Directors approved the purchase of the equipment and requested that the installation be completed as soon as possible. This will be a relief to the traffic entering from North Hervey Street, State Highway No. 4, that has been having a difficult time getting into the heavy traffic on highway 67.

2nd Anniversary But No Peace Talks Progress

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Today is the second anniversary of the peace talks on Vietnam.

The talks began May 13, 1968, in the old Majestic Hotel near the Arch of Triumph. That was after President Lyndon B. Johnson announced a partial halt to the bombing of North Vietnam, and his simultaneous decision to refuse re-election.
